2. Project Title:

COVID Outbreak Emergency
Preparedness Project

3. Criteria.

Please add additional information if the information below does not apply to your project. Attach additional pages if needed.

- The project directly or indirectly supports the fishing industry.

Description: development of this project helps sustain the community and its residents who are dependent on commercial fishing, which is significantly impacted by the current COVID emergency.

- The project will benefit all community residents.

Description: the activities included in this project will be provided equally to all community residents either directly or indirectly through activities conducted by the city and/or the tribal governments.

- The project will lead to sustainable economic growth.

Description: the economy and future economic growth in the community are dependent upon preserving the safety and health of residents by providing access to services that may be unavailable or in short supply during the COVID Outbreak. This project will assure that all residents and the affected city and/or tribal governments have equal access to critical services and supplies provided directly by the city and/or tribal government.

- The project will contribute to the reduction of poverty.

Description: this project will assure that all residents in the community have access to critical resources such as fuel, electricity and supplies as necessary.

- The project will contribute to employment and/or long-term income generating opportunities for residents. Description: this project will preserve jobs within the community and will support new positions that may be needed to address demands on the city and/or tribal government during this period.

- The project will provide economic and social benefits for residents.

Description: it is likely that most residents' employment, income and access to critical supplies have been and will continue to be impacted due to interruptions to economic activities, including fishing, other business and government activities. This project will provide services to all residents equally to assure that the economy and government in each community can continue at emergency levels until the crisis has passed.
