Pre-Season Advance Program

Commercial salmon fishing is a major economic engine in Bristol Bay. Locally held limited entry salmon permits provide a source of employment and income for individual residents that subsequently results in economic benefits to communities in the Bristol Bay region. The Bristol Bay Economic Development Corporation's (BBEDC) mission is to promote economic growth and opportunities for residents of its member communities through sustainable use of the Bering Sea resources. In furtherance of this mission, BBEDC has implemented the Pre-Season Advance Program in order to accomplish BBEDC's mission as well as the overriding mission of providing education and training, reducing poverty, preventing community deterioration, lessening neighborhood tensions, eliminating prejudice and discrimination, economic development of a depressed area/region and lessening the burdens of government. The goal of this program is to assist the BBEDC fishers in the fisheries, by providing advance funding prior to the fishing season to help resident fishers purchase nets, insurance, fuel, freight and transportation, repairs and other necessities required to participate in Bristol Bay's commercial fisheries.

Residents of BBEDC's 17 communities who are commercial drift or setnet fishermen and hold an Alaska Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission fishing permit, or who are vessel owners with a contractual agreement to fish with a watershed resident permit holder, are eligible for pre-fishing season start up advances of up to $5,000. In order to qualify for the BBEDC Pre-Season Advance Program, participants must, in the judgment of BBEDC staff, meet the specific program requirements and demonstrate that they could not effectively and fully participate in the fishery using only their own financial resources.

Applicants must include a budget detailing how the advance will be spent, and fish for a company that agrees to provide a Purchase Order to repay the amount requested plus a fee of $25.00 by July 15th of the year the advance is provided. Advances will not be granted without the Purchase Order guarantee from the applicant's fish buyer and a signed promissory note from the applicant. Interest on the advance after the payment due date will be charged at the rate stated in the promissory note. If the advance is not repaid to BBEDC, or arrangements made to repay the advance over time, will prohibit the applicant from receiving any future services from BBEDC.

Only natural persons (excluding non-natural entities such as corporations, partnerships, etc.) who are certified as residents by one of the seventeen BBEDC member villages listed below are eligible to receive a pre-fishing season start up advance from BBEDC:

Aleknagik	Ekuk	Pilot Point	Twin Hills
Clarks Point	King Salmon/Savonoski	Port Heiden	Ugashik
Dillingham	Manokotak	South Naknek	Ekwok
Egegik	Naknek	Togiak	Portage Creek
Levelock

By accepting a pre-season advance, a borrower agrees that BBEDC will be repaid by July 15 of the year in which the advance is provided and agrees to certain other provisions described below. Failure to repay the advance will make the recipient ineligible for future services from BBEDC, except in some cases of extreme financial hardship.

Examples of extreme financial hardship may include injury, extraordinary family circumstances, the loss or incapacitation of a fishing vessel, engine or other critical fishing component, loss of a market through no fault of the applicant, run failures or other extreme circumstances that shall be evaluated on a case-by-case basis by BBEDC. In such cases, failure to provide timely documentation to BBEDC of the applicant's sincere attempt to participate in the fishery through fish tickets or other means may be considered grounds for ineligibility for future pre-season advances. By accepting a pre-season advance, a borrower agrees to provide such documentation if requested by BBEDC. Eventual repayment of the advance with any accrued interest returns BBEDC program eligibility to the fisher.

Pre-Season Advance Application

Pre-fishing season start-up advances of up to $5,000 are available to residents of BBEDC's 17 CDQ communities who hold an Alaska commercial fishing permit, and to resident vessel owners with a contract to fish with a permit holder who is also a BBEDC community resident. The advance is intended to pay for nets, insurance, fuel, freight and transportation, repairs and other items needed to participate in Bristol Bay's commercial fisheries.

Applicants must include a budget in the space provided below detailing how the advance will be spent. The advance, plus a fee of $25.00 must be repaid to BBEDC by July 15th of the year the advance is provided, and repayment must be guaranteed by a Purchase Order issued by the applicant's fish buyer. Interest will be charged on overdue re-payments at the rate stated in the promissory note.

Interest on the advance after the payment due date will be charged at the rate stated in the promissory note. If the advance is not repaid to BBEDC, or arrangements made to repay the advance over time, persons receiving the pre-season advance will be prohibited from receiving any future services from BBEDC until the debt is satisfied. Failure to use the advance for agreed purchases to facilitate participation in Bristol Bay's commercial fisheries or to repay the advance on time will make the recipient ineligible for pre-season advances in future years, except in cases of extreme financial hardship, to be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Applicants must provide evidence they used their best efforts to participate in the fishery through fish tickets or other documentation. By accepting a pre-season advance, a borrower agrees to provide such documentation and access to other financial records and documentation (including confidential records with other banking institutions) if requested by BBEDC.
